Summary:

Use as a pick sheet, or as a short form. Horses are listed in the predicted order of finish. Handicappers can use our running lines to analyze pace, and determine class with our $$ figures and sire rankings. BOLD print highlights 'best bet' horses that stand out from the field in one or more profile categories, including speed, class, pace, and pedigree. Find profiles, and especially multi-profile selections, to use in key races. For an explanation of profiles, go to the Sample Profiles page at www.racehorserunner.com. For the speed handicapper, our predicted pace figures are fairly accurate, and point to the probable pace-setter. Combine early speed with a strong $$ figure, and you have likely found the class of the speed. A speed horse with the only negative value in the CLOSE column indicates lone speed, and the only positive value in this column indicates lone closer. This sheet is for the purpose of quick handicapping, and is ideal for the rolling pick3 and pick4 player. It is not intended as an inducement to gamble.
